

José Rafael Campino

President

Civil Engineer, graduated from Catholic University of Chile with a Master of Science in Management degree from Stanford University U.S.A.

He founded Forestal del Sur in 1986, currently serves as President of the company. In 1990 he also founded Forestal Los Lagos (today Bosques Los Lagos), where he continues to serve as a member of the Board of Directors. Between 2008 and 2010, he was Chairman of the “Corporación Chilena de la Madera” (Chilean Forestry Association). From 2010 to 2016 was part of Celulosa Arauco y Constitución S.A. Board of Directors.

Mr. Campino possesses extensive expertise in both local and international markets, with a particular emphasis on Asia. His deep understanding of Japanese and Chinese culture has been instrumental in building and maintaining strong, long-standing business relationships with Japan, China and Singapore.

